Welland's 150th Anniversary Commemorative Postcards Go On Sale

For Immediate Release – Thursday, May 15, 2008

Welland – The 150th Anniversary Heritage Committee, chaired by noted photographer Thies Bogner, and Canada Post have teamed up to produce Welland's first set of historical post cards. Each set consists of 13 postcards commemorating the last 150 years of Welland. The postcards will be launched on the front steps of the Courthouse, Cross Street, Welland, on Saturday May 17, 2008 at 3:00 p.m.

The postcards will be sold individually for $1 each or as a box set for $15. The box set includes all 13 postcards tied with a cord to symbolize the Plymouth Cordage Company and encased in a metal tin representing Atlas Steels. Each tin contains a Limited Edition Canada Post Postage Stamp & First Day Cover Cancellation.

The public is invited to join the 150th Anniversary Planning Committee for the "Ceremonial Delivery" of the first 150th Anniversary Postcards to attending dignitaries.
